ELIGIBILITY:

Individual competition is open to all juniors who meet the eligibility requirements of NRA rule 2.3. Competitors may enter more than one Sectional Tournament, but may fire in only one of each discipline of Sectional, for official record, during the same calendar year. Sporter and Precision are separate but equal competitions and a shooter may shoot in both disciplines.

Team competition is open to all juniors who meet the requirements of NRA Rules 2.3 and 2.11. Teams consist of four (4) firing members and a Team Captain (who must be designated) who may also be a firing member of the team. If you shoot in the JROTC category, your entire team must be JROTC also, if one team member fires a precision rifle, that team will compete in the precision classification.

NRA Membership is encouraged but not required:

Juniors competing may belong to an affiliated club. In order to enter scores of competitors in the computer classification system, an NRA number must be used. If you are a member of NRA, indicate your membership number. If you are not an NRA Member, use your classification card number if one has been assigned. If a special number has not been assigned, NRA will assign one when an accumulation of shots is sufficient (rule 19.15).

ADVANCED ENTRIES PREFERRED –

Email your requests for relay assignment by Wednesday, February 1, 2012.

Late Entries accepted on match day to range capacity.

Teams must be determined before any team member begins firing.
